Itinerary

Saturday, September 10

Breakfast on your own

10 AM: Departure for Javits Center – Armory Show

A cornerstone of New York's cultural landscape since its founding in 1994, The Armory Show brings the world's leading international contemporary and modern art galleries to New York each year.

The fair plays a leading role in the city's position as an important cultural capital through elevated presentations, thoughtful programming, curatorial leadership, meaningful institutional partnerships, and engaging public art activations.

10:30 AM: Welcome with Curator Tobias Ostrander of Platform

About Platform: Dedicated to large-scale installations and site-specific works under the theme of "Monumental Change." The section will examine how recent revisionist practices, which are part of dramatic cultural shifts occurring throughout the world, are influencing artists' engagement with sculptural form. In recent years the public has witnessed the dismantling, defacing, and replacement of public monuments as central to de-colonizing strategies that look to revise the commemoration of figures and events related to histories of slavery and racism, the attempted extermination of indigenous populations and appropriation of their lands, and the subjugation of women. These displaced monuments have traditionally been sculptural and figurative in style, depicting their subjects in portrait or allegorical formats. Platform will ask: What subjects might we collectively look to commemorate now? With which materials? And in what form?

Curated by Tobias Ostrander, Estrellita B. Brodsky Adjunct Curator, Latin American Art at Tate, London

Itinerary

Sunday, September 11

Breakfast on your own

10 AM: Depart for Park Slope

11 AM: Studio visit with Marela Zacarías. SLOMA is thrilled to be hosting a solo exhibition with prolific emerging artist Marela Zacarías in the Spring of 2023 (Feb 18–May 14). This group will have the very special experience to visit with Marela in her Park Slope studio and get a sneak peek of some of the works she is preparing for the exhibition at SLOMA.

About the Artist: Marela Zacarías was born in 1978 in Mexico City, Mexico, and currently lives and works between New York and Mexico City. A muralist painter for more than ten years, Zacarías wanted to bring walls into three-dimensional space. Her resulting wall-mounted painted sculptures twist and turn in unruly ways, built from window screens, joint compound, and polymer before being painted in bold, geometric, abstract patterns.

1 PM: Lunch

3 PM: Studio visit with artist Camille Hoffman

7 PM: Dinner

Itinerary

Monday, September 12

Breakfast on your own

10 AM: Departure for Socrates Sculpture Park private tour. Socrates Sculpture Park is a community engaged New York City waterfront park dedicated to supporting artists in the production and presentation of public art.

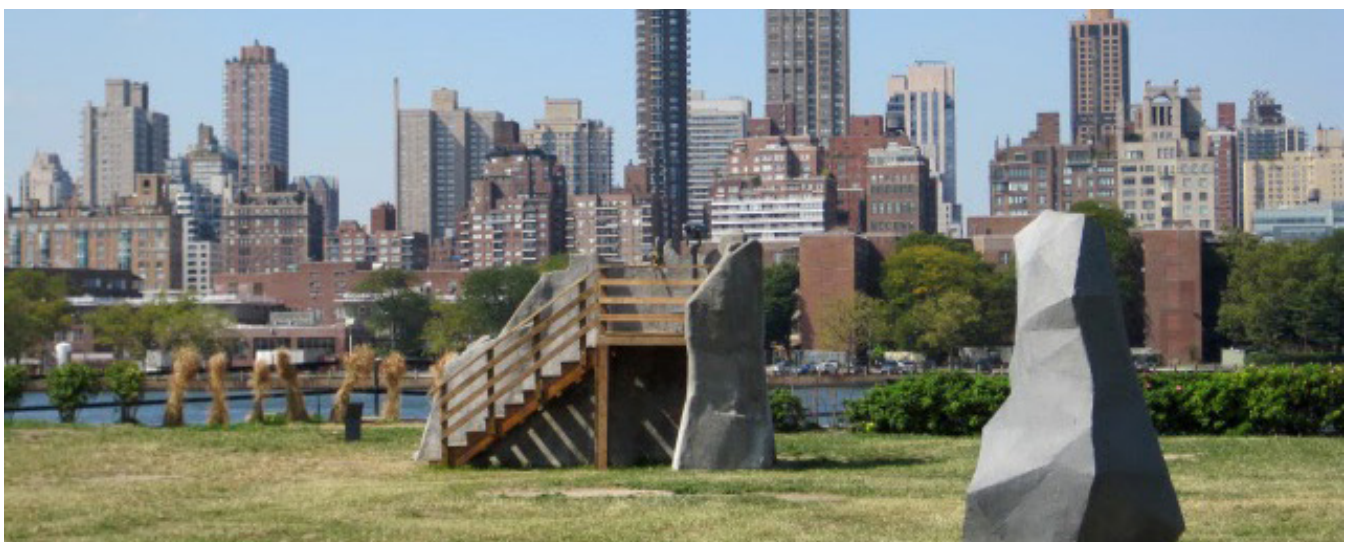

1 PM: Lunch in Long Island City

3 PM: Tour Mark di Suvero studio

5 PM: Sundaram Tagore Gallery tour and cocktail party. As part of SLOMA's work with the City, we have been working closely with Sundaram Tagore Gallery to acquire a permanent roundabout sculpture from renowned artist Anila Agha, who Sundaram Tagore represents. Anila Agha will also be presenting a major solo exhibition at SLOMA in May of 2023 (May 20–Aug 13). Sundaram Tagore will host a special champagne and cocktail gathering and share news about their program.

About Sundaram Tagore: Established in 2000, Sundaram Tagore Gallery is a contemporary art gallery representing established and emerging artists from around the globe. They specialize in work that is aesthetically and intellectually rigorous, infused with humanism, and art historically significant. Their artists produce museum-caliber paintings, drawings, sculptures, and installations with a strong emphasis on materiality. The gallery also has a robust photography program that includes some of the world's most noted photographers. Their artists and photographers are well represented in renowned museums worldwide.

7 PM: Dinner, HOWM Cocina & Cocktails at the Selina Hotel
